CONCERT A

Sunday, October 23
Birmingham Seaholm HS Auditorium
2436 W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham

A Night at the Opera Charles Greenwell, conducting

Verdi: Overture to La forza del destino
Mascagni: Intermezzo from Cavalleria rusticana
Rimsky-Korsakov: Bridal Procession from Le Coq d'Or
Massenet: Ballet Music from Le Cid
J. Strauss, Jr.: Overture to Die Fledermaus
Offenbach: Intermezzo & Barcarolle from The Tales of Hoffmann
Saint-Saëns: Bacchanale from Samson and Delilah
Borodin: Polovtsian Dances from Prince Igor

You won't need to go to the Opera House to enjoy this program of orchestral music - without voices - from the world of opera. These soaring selections will be introduced and conducted by our leading man in the pit, Charles Greenwell. Experience the drama of Verdi, the elegance of Strauss and the wild abandon of Saint-Saëns's Bacchanale - all in your own neighborhood.

CONCERT B

Sunday, December 18
Birmingham Groves HS Auditorium
20500 W. Thirteen Mile Road, Beverly Hills

Make a Joyful Noise Charles Greenwell, conducting Seaholm & Groves HS Choirs

Vaughan Williams: Fantasia on "Greensleeves"
Herbert: "March of the Toys"
Jessel: "Parade of the Wooden Soldiers"
Scott: "The Toy Trumpet"
Waldteufel: The Skaters' Waltz
Williams: Selections from Hook

Enjoy one of our audience's favorite concerts of the year. The holidays are nearly upon us, but the warmth, joy and wonder of these works fine-tunes our mood for the season. Featured on the program - and performing with the BBSO for the first time - are two of our fine local youth choirs.

CONCERT C

Sunday, February 12
Temple Israel
5725 Walnut Lake Road, West Bloomfield Township

Water Music Charles Greenwell, conducting Timothy Krohn, trumpet

Mozart: Overture to La clemenza di Tito
Hummel: Trumpet Concerto in E major
Handel: Excerpts from Water Music
Haydn: Symphony No. 97 in C major

This presentation of music from the "classical" era features the superb strings, winds, brass and timpani of the BBSO. Mozart's elegant overture is followed by Hummel's exuberant trumpet concerto with our own virtuoso Timothy Krohn taking the star turn. You'll enjoy the stately splendor of Handel's Water Music and the solid eloquence of Haydn's mature symphony. It is our "classic" valentine to you.

CONCERT D

Sunday, March 18
Birmingham Groves HS Auditorium
20500 W. Thirteen Mile Road, Beverly Hills

Espressivo Italiano John Thomas Dodson, conducting

Rossini: Sinfonia di Bologna
Bizet: Symphony in C major "Roma"
Schubert: Overture in D major "In the Italian Style"
Mendelssohn: Symphony No. 4 in A major (Italian)

Conductor John Thomas Dodson returns to put his imprint on a program of music from and about Italy. Rossini's sprightly Sinfonia of 1808 opens the evening followed by Bizet's "Roma", a rarity full of melody and charm from the composer of Carmen. Schubert's Overture "In the Italian Style" is the warm-up for Mendelssohn's dramatic Symphony No. 4, a powerful work inspired by his Italian journey. Enjoy this exciting tour of the fabled, eternal Italy.

CONCERT E

Sunday, May 20
Birmingham Seaholm HS Auditorium
2436 W. Lincoln Road, Birmingham

Grande Finale Charles Greenwell, conducting Young Artist Competition Winner

Sibelius: Symphony No. 5 in E-flat major
Concerto Movement by Young Artist TBA
Mendelssohn: Overture to
A Midsummer Night's Dream
Ravel: Boléro

The genius of the north, Jean Sibelius, headlines the program with his mighty Symphony No. 5. The orchestra soars from the triumphal first to the powerhouse final movement. Our talented BBSO Young Artist Competition winner is featured next on a concerto movement with the orchestra. We look forward to summer with Mendelssohn, then brace ourselves for the season finale, Ravel's blazing tour de force, Boléro. Don't miss a minute of this thrilling evening.
